Israel Porter 1034 was a blacksmith at Amherst; a skilled worker at the U. S. armory at Springfield, Mass. Sent from there to teach his methods at the Harpers Ferry armory. Discharged because he helped a negro to escape. He invented a plow suitable for western soil-existing plows being unsuitable. First to use a swivel in chains. An active abolitionist, his Ill. home an underground station.

Avis (Amer. Dict. Biog.) is called a woman of exceptional qualities and education. Her children among the most outstanding Blodgetts.

JAMES FREDERICK 7 (Same as 1066 Rufus 6, Abner 5, Benoni 4, Thomas 3, Daniel 2)

This family is accepted by a Cridgett Family Association, but there is an obvious error. They say Sidney's (2493) fifth son was born in 1845, only 33 years after the probable birth of the son's grandfather James Frederick.

It should also be noted that a fourth wife is suggested for James Frederick (see 1066) IN B 2-54:233, is a marriage to Mrs. Maria (Borst) Shaw.

Samuel #1322 a first settler of Cornwall. Taken prisoner by Indians after the fall of Ticonderoga. Bound to a tree and threatened with death but escaped by knowing the British Officer that he was a Mason. Taken to Ticonderoga where he was abused and tortured. Liberated, he found his family in Arlington or Bennington. Returned to Cornwall; for many years active in town affairs- constable and selectman.
